

MATRIMONIAL FRAUD IN JAIL.

Advertised to Forward Photograph of Heiress Who Wanted Husband and Took $10,000 in Cash.

But He is a Crook with a Record, is Wanted Abroad, So the Police Looked Him Up and Will Prosecute Him.

William D. Furlong, who will be arraigned to-morrow in the Centre Street Court charged with using the mails to defraud, has been recognized as a noted American crook.

His arrest in this instance was for charging $1 each for the photograph of a young woman who had to get married to settle a mythical estate and was willing to pay $10,000 to have the marriage ceremony performed. He is said to have received about $10,000 for this scheme, when the officers arrested him in the post-office.

Furlong's picture is No. 1,419 in the Rogues' Gallery. He was arrested in this city in 1892 for passing a bogus check for $500 on a bank in Milan, Italy, but as the Italian officers did not prosecute he was released.

In July, 1894, he was arrested here for having in his possession a tray of diamonds stolen from a jewelry store by a sneak thief. For having stolen goods in his possession he was sent to Sing Sing for four years.

He went to London in 1900 and, under the name of W. G. Fernald, started a clothes cleaning and pressing agency where the subscribers paid in advance for having their clothes kept in order for a year. One day, when he had collected about $5,000 in advance and had $10,000 worth of clothes on hand, he disappeared. He is wanted in London for that offense and the New York police say he is wanted in a half dozen other places.

Since his arrival in New York and the starting of the Simpson Estate swindle, he had been conducting other schemes, which the authorities are now investigating. One of them, in which the police say that he has probably made more money than through the marrying heiress, is the one in which he has been advertising in the papers throughout the West and Canada as follows:

A New York financial company requires substantial representation having close record and highest references. Bank guarantee of $500 to $1,000. Salary, $2,000. Address: SALMON ESTIMATE, No. 28 Wall street, New York City.

His scheme, the post-office inspectors say, was to get these presumed representatives to advance from $500 to $1,000 for investment in stocks when the market was high.

BOUGHT OLD IRON WITH BOGUS CHECKS

That Explains Why Sally Was So Liberal in Bidding Against Other Buyers.

Owners of buildings in course of demolition have been approached during the past year by a young man who offered twice as much for the old iron in the buildings as other bidders. He called himself various names, among them Joseph Bailey, Joseph Cohen, Jackson Hamhurst and the Metropolitan Iron Company, and always displayed a checkbook showing a large balance in some bank.

He bought thousands of dollars' worth of old iron and carted it away, giving bogus checks in payment. Detective

Vallely was put on his trail a month ago and found him last night at Eighth avenue and Forty-eighth street. He was held for further examination. In court to give the horse of complainants a chance to testify against him.

Sally, who is twenty-eight years old and refuses to give his residence, swindled on a wholesale scale. He had his own trucks and his own yards for disposing of the iron he bought. He worked with a boldness that was his salvation for a time, one of his feats being the swindling of three big downtown firms within a few blocks of each other in less than a week. He has served one term in the penitentiary for petty swindling.

The Buffalo Express Says: "THE NEW YORK WORLD ALMANAC is the best work of the kind now published in this country."

AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES AND THEIR PEDIGREES

AMERICANS are noted all over the world for their wonderful success in commercial enterprises.

They have large amounts of capital invested in every country, and have, perhaps, done more to develop the new countries of the world than has any other people.

A great many plain American citizens possess wealth that far exceeds that of Princes and Kings.
